"A GOOD BILL."

The San Francisco Call speaks a good word for the Hon Leonard Myers, of Pennsylvania, who has appeared as the especial champion of the Pacific Coast on questions arising from Chinese immigration His bill supplemental to an act in relation to immigration, covers the ground assumed by the local courts of San Francisco in relation to the importation of Chinese women It provides that a United States Consul shall not deliver a permit or certificate to persons who have entered into contract or agreement for a term of service in the United States, either for labor or for improper purposes The bill forbids the importation of women for immoral purposes, invalidates all contracts made in relation to such service, makes it a penal offence for Americans to be engaged in such trade, and makes the importation or holding of women for such purposes a felony, punishable with fine and imprisonment No other nation sends in immigrants bound to years of service either of labor or of the degrading character indicated in the bill As a consequence, this bill while general in application, and thus avoiding the "most favored nation" clause in the treaty, still, in effect, applies only to Chinese immigration The bill was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and there it will probably sleep the remaining twenty days of the present Congress On the 4th of March Congress expires, and all unfinished legislation expires with it There is little prospect, therefore, that the bill will become a law this session but as the President has committed himself in favor of the principles of the bill, it may be revived next year with better prospects

DR. A. B. SPINNEY,

WELL KNOWN throughout the country as a Pathologist and Physiologist whose successful treatment of certain physical disabilities and functional derangements deservedly entitled him to the familiar recognition of the GREAT SPECIALIST would respectfully inform the citizens of Virginia City Nevada and vicinity that he can be consulted at No 188 South C street Virginia, seven doors north of the French Drug Store at his office thus giving invalids an opportunity of ridding themselves through his professional agency of such constitutional annoyances and ailments as he claims to compass and cure Without entering into biographical details it is sufficient to simply promulgate the fact that DR SPINNEY'S earliest reputation may be traced back to his matriculation and conduct of the Montreal (Canada East) Medical Institute The regime of the English Pharmacutical Colleges is gauged by an elevated standard An extended experience and an assiduous study of the varied phases of disease enables him to guarantee assurance of success in the eradication of the multifarious chronic affections incident to both sexes such as Nervous Debility, Exhausted Nitality Youthful Excesses Marriage Impediments Chronic and General Afflictions

TO THE LADIES.

DR SPINNEY while naturally impressed with the delicacy of the subject feels no hesitancy in assuring them that in conjunction with a competent knowledge of their various sufferings such as Nervousness Neuralgia Spinal Weakness Loss of Appetite Lassitude Fluttering Palpitations or Displacement of the Womb Vaginal Irregularities Leucorrhœa Dyspepsia Indigestion Constipation and the many petty ailments and distractions that almost invariably have their origin in the uterine region afford them immediate relief

YOUNG MEN.

Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion will do well to avail themselves of this the greatest boon ever bestowed at the altar of suffering humanity DR SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit five hundred dollars for every case of seminal weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure He would therefore say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice that you may safely depend upon his honor and be perfectly secure in confiding your complaint to him You may be in the last stage of misery and approaching the last If you are breaking up in the last and to suffering as most all of this evil effects remember that there is positively persistence in procrastination the time must come when the most skillful physicians cannot render you assistance when the door of hope will be closed against you, when no angel of mercy can bring you relief In no case has he undertaken of success Then let not despair will its blight upon your imagination but will be relieved of the benefited results of his treatment but if your case is beyond the reach of medical skill or if the grim death knocks you to a premature grave

COME AND BE HEALED

It matters not what your trouble may be come and let the Doctor examine your case It will cost you not a cent for consultation so please call and satisfy yourself whether the Doctor understands your case If he can cure you he will tell you so if not he will say so for he will not mislead take a cure nor less he is confident of effecting a cure

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many of the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for on examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often appear at intervals some times small particles of albumen will appear and the patient will be troubled with a frequent urge to urinate and pain in passing the urine There are many reasons why this should be attended to at once which is the seat and origin of so much misery and premature decay DR S will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the genito urinary organs

N B—Only an interview required in many inveterate cases of a few treatments can be conducted at home without interruption to business No exposure and without a personal interview and physical examination

FAVORABLE REPORT.—Judge Webster, who returned from Carson yesterday afternoon informs us that the report of the Special Prison Committee was presented in the Senate yesterday forenoon. The report says the entire cost of everything should not have exceeded $35,000, whereas $50,000 was expended. Accompanying the report of the Committee was a bill appropriating $100,000 for the continuation of the work. There is no doubt of the passage of the bill. Although the appropriation is small, still, it will have a tendency to make things a little livelier this Summer. We need something.

REAL ESTATE.—Real estate, both in town and in the county, is in demand. The best of prices offering and quite a number of sales. Among the old residents there is evinced no disposition to sell, and only those who have within a year or so acquired property are disposed to part with their possessions.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Betsey Ring, mother of Orvis Ring, Esq., will take place from the Methodist Church at 2 P. M. to-day. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of Jacob Bauer, new to day. Mr. Bauer will furnish his customers with fresh bread and hot roll at their doors every morning without extra charge.

SENT TO CARSON.—The Peavine bullion that has been on exhibition at Kinkead's has been sent to the mint at Carson to be turned into trade dollars.

FOR SALE.—The brick dwelling house of D. A. Bender, on West street, is offered for sale. For particulars apply at the bank.

NEW VARIETY STORE.—Mr. C. J. Brookins has opened a variety store on Virginia street, adjoining J. E. Jones & Co's. bank. He deals in stationery, candy, confectionery, cigars and tobacco, and other useful articles. By close attention to business, and by giving a man his money's worth, he expects to command patronage. Give him a call.

SURGERY.—It is no longer necessary for the afflicted who need surgical aid to go to the "coast," as they have now in Reno one of the most skillful surgeons in the United States. Dr. A. J. Grover has no superior on the Pacific slope as a successful surgeon. He gaurantees the most perfect satisfaction in all cases that are within the reach of surgical skill. Also gives special attention to chronic diseases.

FOR SALE.—The livery stable belonging to the estate of L. H. Dyer, of Gilroy, containing twenty-six horses and sixteen carriages, is offered for sale. See new advertisement.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Black Warrior Gold and Silver Mining Company will be held at Wadsworth on Tuesday next.

CARLISLE ESTATE.—Something of interest to the creditors of the estate of J. D. Carlisle, deceased, will be found in our advertising columns.

DELINQUENT SALE.—The delinquent sale notice of the New York Tunneling and Mining Company appears in another column.

OH no of course not. for Nels. Greenman has a laundry of his own and will do his level best to satisfy his old customers and gobble all new ones in sight. Nels. Greenman, Pedro Laundry. *

MUSIC.—Conrad Zick gives notice in another column that he is prepared to furnish music, and also to give instructions on the guitar and brass instruments. Orders left at the Marysville saloon will be promptly attended to.

NOTICE.—Mr. Nels. Greenman is no longer our authorized agent. Our patrons will govern themselves accordingly. SU LEE & Co. *

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the First Session of the Forty-Third Congress.

Convention between the United States of America and the Orange Free State Friendship commerce and extradition Concluded December 22 1871 Ratification advised by Senate April 24, 1872, Ratified by President April 27 1872, Ratified by Volksraad of Orange Free State May 10 1872 Ratifications exchanged at Washington August 18, 1873 Proclaimed August 25, 1873

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas a general convention of friendship commerce and extradition between the United States of America and the Orange Free State was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at Bloemfontein on the twenty second day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy nine, which general convention is word for word as follows

GENERAL CONVENTION OF FRIENDSHIP COMMERCE AND EXTRADITION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND THE ORANGE FREE STATE

The United States of America and the Orange Free State, equally animated by the desire to draw more closely the bonds of friendship which so happily exists between the two nations as well as to augment by all the means at their disposal, the commercial interests of their respective citizens have resolved to conclude a general convention of friendship commerce and extradition

For this purpose they have appointed as their plenipotentiaries to wit The President of the United States William W Lincoln their agent of the United States, and the consul at the Cape of Good Hope and the President of the Orange Free State Friedrich Fleischman Hugo Secretary, who after exchanging their respective full powers have agreed to the following articles

ARTICLE I

The citizens of the United States of America and the citizens of the Orange Free State shall be admitted and treated upon the footing of perfect equality in the two countries to the same admission and the same rights and privileges of the constitution laws and usages of the contracting parties No peculiar or other more burdensome conditions shall be imposed upon them than are or shall be imposed upon the citizens of the country where they reside, nor any condition which is not equally binding on the latter shall not be imposed

The foregoing privilege of war shall not extend to the political rights

ARTICLE II

The citizens of one of the two countries residing or established in the other shall be free from personal military service military duties and liable to the payment of taxes which may be generally levied from citizens of the country where they reside who are exempt from such service

No higher or other duties or charges shall be exacted from the citizens of one of the countries residing or established in the other than shall be levied upon citizens of the country in which they reside, nor any condition or tax which the latter shall not be subject to

ARTICLE III

The citizens of each of the contracting parties shall have power to dispose of their personal property within the jurisdiction of the other, by sale, donation, testament, or other manner and their heirs whether by testament or ab intestato or their assigns being citizens of the contracting party shall succeed to the said property and may take it and dispose of it by their agents or others acting for them as may seem best as they may think fit and pay no other charges than those to which the inhabitants of the country where the said property is situated shall be liable to pay in similar cases In the absence of such heirs or other successors the same shall be taken care of by the authorities for the preservation of property as would be taken for property of a native of the country until lawful proprietor shall have had time to take measures to possess himself of the same

But in case of the property being within the territories of one of the contracting parties of which the owner is a citizen of the other having and holding such property there shall be conceded to the said heirs or successors such time as the laws of the country will permit to dispose of such property and export the proceeds without let or difficulty and without paying higher duties or other charges than those which in similar cases would be payable if the owner of the property were a native of the country in which the property is situated

ARTICLE V

The contracting parties reciprocally guarantee to each other the privilege of having each in their respective States consuls and vice consuls Let exequatur of appointment who shall enjoy the same privileges as those of the most favored nation

But before any such consul shall act as such, he shall in the ordinary form be approved by the government of the country in which his functions are to be exercised

In their private and business rights the consuls and vice consuls shall be treated on the same footing as citizens of the country where they reside

In case of infractions of the laws by any consul or vice consul the government of the country in which he resides may withdraw his exequatur or require his recall

Archives and documents relating to the consulate shall be inviolable and under no pretext whatever shall be taken possession of or inspected except when they may be in the hands of persons duly authorized to receive them

ARTICLE VI

Neither of the contracting parties shall impose any higher or other duties upon the importation into its territories of the natural or manufactured products of the other than are or shall be payable upon the like articles of any other country

ARTICLE VII

Each of the contracting parties agrees hereby not to grant any favor or privilege in commerce navigation or industry to any other nation which shall not be equally accorded to the other party

ARTICLE VIII

The United States of America and the Orange Free State on requisition made in their name through the medium of their respective diplomatic or consular agents shall deliver up persons who shall have committed any of the crimes enumerated in this article within the jurisdiction of the requiring party shall succeed to the said property in manner and the property shall be restored to the rightful owner by others acting for the same as they may think fit and pay no other charges than those to which the inhabitants of the country where the property is situated shall be liable to pay in similar cases In the absence of such heirs or successors the same shall be taken care of by the authorities for the preservation of property as would be taken for property of a native of the country until lawful proprietor shall have had time to take measures to possess himself of the same

But in case of the property being within the territories of one of the contracting parties of which the owner is a citizen of the other having and holding such property there shall be conceded to the said heirs or successors such time as the laws of the country will permit to dispose of such property and export the proceeds without let or difficulty and without paying higher duties or other charges than those which in similar cases would be payable if the owner of the property were a native of the country in which the property is situated

ARTICLE IX

Persons shall be delivered up according to the provisions of this convention who shall be charged with any of the following crimes namely murder (including assassination parricide infanticide and poisoning) attempt to commit murder rape forgery including counterfeiting of public bonds documents and papers arson robbery with violence intimidation or forcible entry of an inhabited house piracy embezzlement by public officers or by persons hired or salaried to the detriment of their employers when such offenses are subject to infamous punishment

ARTICLE X

The surrender shall be made by the executives of the contracting parties respectively

ARTICLE XI

The expense of detention and delivery effected pursuant to the preceding articles shall be at the cost of the party making the demand

ARTICLE XII

The provisions of the foregoing articles relating to the surrender of fugitive criminals shall not apply to offenses committed before the date hereof, nor to those of a political character

ARTICLE XIII

The present convention is concluded for the period of ten years from the day of the exchange of the ratifications and in case neither before the expiration of that period nor at the end of any subsequent term of ten years thereafter the contracting parties shall have announced by an official notification to the other to arrest the operations of the said convention it shall continue binding for twelve months longer and so on from year to year until the expiration of twelve months which will follow a similar notification whatever the time at which it may take place

ARTICLE XIV

This convention shall be submitted to both Houses of the Congress of the United States of America and to the Volksraad of the Orange Free State for approval and ratification of the respective competent authorities and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Washington at the expiration of six months from the date hereof or sooner if possible

In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the above articles and have thereunto affixed their seals

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas a convention between the United States of America and the Republic of Liberia for the mutual naturalization of citizens of the contracting parties was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at the City of Washington on the twelfth day of March eighteen hundred and sixty nine which convention being in the English and Spanish languages is word for word as follows

The United States of America and the Republic of Liberia desiring to define the status of citizens who emigrate from the United States to Liberia and of those who emigrate from Liberia to the United States have for that purpose appointed as their plenipotentiaries the President of the United States William H Seward Secretary of State of the United States and the President of Liberia Stephen A Hoff minister resident and consul general of Liberia at London who after exchanging their full powers found in good and due form have agreed upon the following articles

Each of the two contracting parties recognizes the right of emigration of its citizens or subjects from its territories to the other to become citizens or subjects in the country of their adoption but not to carry on a military or naval service against their native country

ARTICLE II

Any citizen of the United States who may emigrate to Liberia and there become a naturalized citizen of that Republic and who shall thereafter return to the United States with the intention of resuming his residence therein may be received back as a citizen of the United States upon his taking the oath of allegiance prescribed by the laws of the United States for the admission of foreigners to citizenship

ARTICLE III

Any citizen of Liberia who may emigrate to the United States and there become a naturalized citizen of the United States and who shall thereafter return to Liberia with the intention of resuming his residence therein may be received back as a citizen of Liberia upon his taking such oath of allegiance to the Government of Liberia as may be prescribed by its laws

ARTICLE IV

This convention shall be submitted to both Houses of the Congress of the United States of America and to the Volksraad of the Orange Free State for approval and ratification of the respective competent authorities and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Washington at the expiration of six months from the date hereof or sooner if possible
